

REMARKS

The allowability of claims 13 and 26 is acknowledged appreciatively and accepted by incorporating these claims into their parent claims 1 and 14, whereby all the remaining claims also become allowable.

The incorporation of claims 13 and 26 into claims 1 and 14 includes the Examiner's courteous suggestion for repeating the word "inherited" on both sides of the conjunction to avoid a rejection under 25 USC 112. Even though in response to a statutory requirement, this grammatically superfluous addition is not narrowing and, therefore, does not invoke any Festo-like limitations.

Other improvements in the antecedents and grammar of the additions to claims 1 and 14 from claims 13 and 26 are also made voluntarily. In addition to not narrowing, these additions also are not in response to a statutory requirement and, therefore, doubly do not invoke any Festo-like limitations.

Subtitles that are recommended but not required are added to the specification at the Examiner's request, as is a description of Figure 3. The description of Figure 3 is supported by page 14 of the original specification, for example.

Reconsideration and allowance are, therefore, requested.

Respectfully submitted,
